Digitalisation of Process Control

– Delivering more data with cyber security in mind

Virtual Events - 25-26 November 2020

Technical Programme

Digitalisation seems to be the new industry buzzword, but what does it actually mean for the process industry? A need to reduce costs drives our desire for increased efficiency; a new generation of digital technology claims to make this possible. Do the rewards of digitalisation outweigh both the risks and the expenditure? Digitalisation isn't just about introducing new technology, it often means that systems can be rendered more vulnerable, processes have to be updated, work forces have to be trained, systems have to be successfully integrated and the data captured has to be processed.

The question remains, which technology gives best return on investment? Join us virtually on 25-26 November to discuss the challenges of this increasingly complex industrial landscape.

Fierce Beer Tasting

We are hosting a beer tasting, in association with Fierce Beer, at the end of the Conference, taking place on 26th November at 1615-1700. This is available to the first 30 delegates who book places. If you do not wish to participate, you can opt out. This is an excellent way to learn a bit more about some of the more unusual beers on the market and it will be a bit of fun to finish off our conference. More information including whether you have secured a place, will be sent nearer the time.
